

Reem Island's Marina Square welcomes Géant Supermarket to the community

More than 8000 residents in Marina Square enjoy the ease of access to Geant's Supermarket.

19 December 2013, Abu Dhabi, UAE: French supermarket chain Géant this week opened its third Abu Dhabi store in the heart of Marina Square, Reem Island. The supermarket is the latest retail outlet to open in the community and comes in a series of planned openings for Q4 2013 in the Marina Square area.

Marina Square, developed by Tamouh on Reem Island, is currently home to more than 8000 residents and is steadily becoming a vibrant community hub, attracting visitors to the area with the combination of facilities and its outdoor activities. Paragon Bay mall, a paramount development, lies at the centre of the pedestrian-friendly neighbourhood, and will become home to 85 retail shops, 25 food and beverage outlets and a five-screen cinema when complete.

The 2,680 square metre Géant outlet is the third to open in Abu Dhabi and it will join already open chains in the mall area including O'Hara Flowers and United Arab Bank, with three further commercial outlets set to open Soon.

Samia Bouazza, Marketing Director of Tamouh, comments:

"Marina Square is already abuzz with community atmosphere, with residents having most of their needs within walking distance of their home, encouraging a walking culture and enabling them to make the most of their leisure or free time. With the number of residents steadily increasing, our priority at Tamouh is to ensure that all residents have the best services and facilities on their doorstep. The addition of Géant Supermarket to the area will certainly provide added value to this growing community."

Marina Square, offers residents a community focussed lifestyle. Its close proximity to Abu Dhabi downtown, distinctive waterfront location and availability of parking space makes it an ideal choice for residents looking to stay central without the hustle of city life.

Paragon Bay mall, currently under construction, will feature a waterfront promenade that will offer a Yacht Club and outdoor entertainment.
